Color It Rights!

A Child's Introduction To The United Nations Convention On The Rights Of The Child

CBU CHILDREN'S RIGHTS CENTRE
Acknowledgements

On November 20, 2009, the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child celebrated its 20th birthday. To help young children everywhere know more about their rights, we have developed this coloring book. An accompanying guide for teachers can be downloaded from our website.

This coloring book would not have been possible without the vision and talent of Ashley Nicole MacIntosh, research assistant at the Children’s Rights Centre, 2008-2009. We would also like to thank Annick Anctil for translating the book into French.

We hope that your children will enjoy learning about their rights.

For more information on the Convention, and the benefits of children knowing about their rights check out the CBU Children’s Rights Centre website.

The production and distribution of this resource was funded by the Department of Canadian Heritage, Government of Canada.
