Objectives

1. To broaden participants understanding of the critical role that adults play in youth development-related efforts through the sharing of research, information and experiences.

2. To identify sources of sustainability for youth-adult partnerships and their relationship to economic, community, cultural and social factors both locally and internationally.

3. To create an effective forum for cooperation among paper presenters and participants.

4. To provide input for strengthening National Youth Development Policies and other policies related to youth development.
